Section ~~D. 2.~~ ~~Station,~~
Date ~~August~~ 25-8-32 1932

Subject (in full) Arrest of Communist Suspect by Yulin Road Station on August 22, 1932.

Made by D.S.I. Everest. Forwarded by D.I.

With reference to the attached memo from the Officer i/c Special Branch regarding a report made by D. S. Hide of Yulin Road Station on the subject of the arrest and subsequent release of a person found in possession of communist literature on August 22, I have to report having brought the contents of the aforementioned memo to the notice of D. S. Hide.

Regarding this matter D. S. Hide stated that although he had omitted to mention the fact in his report, the points raised by the Officer i/c Special Branch in the aforementioned memo had been fully covered, but without result.

Summarized translations of the handbills are attached herewith.

POLICE FORCE,
MUNICIPAL COUNCIL,

Shanghai, 23/8/39 193

To S.2

Under the circumstances the shop & house of Wong Chu-kung should have been searched. Further, there is no mention of result of interrogation of Wong & his wife in the matter of identification of the boy who received cakes in exchange for the leaflets. If he were unknown to Wong it seems absurd that the latter should barter cakes for a few leaflets. JR.

REPORT

Yulin Road Station,

23/8/32

Date 23, August 1932.

Subject (in full) Possession of Communistic Pamphlets.

Made by D. S. Hide Forwarded by Insp. i/c Hall.

Sir;

At 5.50 p.m. on the 22-8-32 C.P.S. 55 brought to the station a Chinese Tseu Ling Ching (周明慶), aged 18, native of Kompo, who he arrested on Tsitsihar Road while hawking a basket of cakes which also contained a small quantity of Communistic pamphlets which were being used for the purpose of wrapping up the cakes.

On interrogation Tseu Ling Ching stated the pamphlets were given him by his employer the owner of a [illegible] cake shop on [illegible] Road, who had obtained them two days previously from a Chinese boy in exchange for seven two copper cakes.

The undersigned and C.D.C. 218 visited the shop but the owner Wong Shu Kung (王秀康) was out, however, on questioning his wife she gave the same account as to the manner in which they came to be in possession of the pamphlets. She was instructed to tell Wong to attend the station on his return.

At 7.p.m. Wong Shu Kung came to the station and was thoroughly interrogated, he also gave the same story and no further information was obtained. He stated that neither he, his wife or the boy are able to read, and were consequently unaware of the nature of the pamphlets.

Under the foregoing circumstances, it was not considered necessary to communicate with the Special Branch and those concerned were cautioned and released.

I am, Sir,

Yours obediently,

Laurence W. Hide
